

Parent/Guardian Consent Form

DurHack:NextGen is a two day event where your child will have the opportunity to learn programming and build something (be it software, hardware, web apps) to solve real world problems. The event will run from 9-5 on Saturday 18th April and 9-6 on Sunday 19th April in the Teaching and Learning Centre at Durham University, more information and a rough schedule can be found at <https://www.durhack.com/nextgen>.

We believe the safety and security of a child is paramount and make every effort to ensure the child's well being.

We respect the confidentiality and privacy of the child so it is important you give permission for us to use your child's photos online on our website, event summaries and other pages. Children will not be named in any of our images.

Please complete all of the following sections and bring this form with you to the event on the 18th April 2020.

Failure to present this form upon arrival will result in exclusion from the event.

FAQ

What is DurHack:NextGen?

I don't want my child getting involved in 'Hacking'

The Hacking we do isn't illegal or malicious, but instead refers to 'hacking together' a piece of software etc. - MLH have a great FAQ here: <https://mlh.io/parent-hackathon-guide>

I'm concerned about the responsibility of the staff

All our staff hold an enhanced DBS check with safeguarding and first aid trained staff available at all times.

My child has a medical condition

Please make sure to note this in the required medical form. Staff will be made aware of the problem and there will be a dedicated First Aider on site at all times.

My child is a fussy eater. How will you cater?

We offer a wide variety of food options, however in the circumstance that there is nothing for them we'll try our best to source other food. You're welcome to bring your own food.

Can I take my child offsite?

Yes at any time. You however must sign out with a member of staff before leaving.

What happens if there is a problem at the event?

In the unlikely event that anything happens that concerns the wellbeing of your child, we will resolve the situation as quickly as possible and let you know immediately via the phone number given on the consent form.

What will you do with my child's photos?

The photos will be posted online and used for future advertisements of the event. They will not be named unless they win a prize.
